

December 1, 2015

CONTACT:

Danielle De Souza
Public Relations Manager
631-232-0011 ext. 457
ddesouza@ucp-suffolk.org

UCP Suffolk Welcomes Three New Board Members

Hauppauge, NY – United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Suffolk County Inc. (UCP Suffolk) is pleased to announce the appointment of three board members who will serve a three-year term beginning in January 2016.

Patrick Egan, CPA, is the Senior Vice President, Tax and Strategic Planning of New York Community Bancorp. With more than 25 years of experience in tax planning, Egan is responsible for tax support of branching, capital markets-treasury operations and loan origination business lines at New York Community Bancorp. He has also served as Vice President, Tax Counsel of Citigroup, Inc. and as Managing Director of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

A graduate of State University of New York, with a degree in Business Administration, Egan invests his time and dedication to his field. He is a member of The New York Bankers Association Tax Committee, The Committee of Banking Institutions on Taxation, The Financial Manager's Society, The American Institute of CPAs, The New York State Society of CPAs and The New Markets Tax Credit Coalition.

Egan has been a supporter of UCP Suffolk and has been involved with the organization's Golf Classic and Life Without Limits Gala.

Javier Evans is the Senior Vice President, Director of Human Resources of Astoria Bank. He has more than 30 years of progressively responsible experience directing the Human Resource function within the financial services industry. He began his financial services career at GreenPoint Bank, where he spent 14 years working in various areas of the Operations Department, as well as, Human Resources.

A graduate of New York Institute of Technology, Old Westbury with a degree in Human Resources Management, Evans has always had a passion for his field. He is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management, The National Association for African Americans in Human Resources and The National Black MBA. He also serves as President and a board member of The Rush Philanthropic Arts Foundation.

Evans has been a supporter of UCP Suffolk for many years and served on the committee for the organization's first Casino Night in April 2015.

Steve Louro is the founder of Professional Group Plans, the leading distributor of health insurance and ancillary products in the metropolitan area. The company, headquartered in Hauppauge, NY, represents all the major health insurance companies with 65,000 corporate clients and 2.8 billion in annualized premium through a network of over 5,000 insurance brokers. Professional Group Plans has an outstanding reputation for knowledgeable, professional, prompt and friendly service.

Louro, a graduate of St. Bonaventure with a Bachelor of Science degree, has been a supporter of UCP Suffolk events for many years. He has sponsored The Children's Center's Breakfast with Santa event, is a member of the Golf Classic and Life Without Limits Gala Committees and has served as a gala honoree in 2012.