UCP Suffolk to Present 2016 Casino Night

Hauppauge, NY – United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Suffolk, Inc. (UCP Suffolk) is pleased to announce that it will host its 2016 Casino Night at The Larkfield in East Northport, NY on Thursday, April 21, 2016 at 6:30 p.m.

“We are very excited to be presenting Casino Night for the second time,” Stephen H. Friedman, UCP Suffolk President, CEO said. “We are confident that this year’s event will be another great success, all in support of creating a life without limits for people with disabilities.”

The evening will include cocktails, a fabulous buffet dinner and Viennese hour. Guests will have an opportunity to network and participate in various casino games and raffles. Proceeds will support UCP Suffolk programs and services that will benefit the 3,500 children and adults with disabilities the agency serves.

The event is being co-chaired by UCP Suffolk parent Maria Pfundstein, UCP Suffolk Board Chair and parent Thomas Pfundstein and Andrew Corrado, Senior Vice President and Group Director of Signature Bank.

"I am very excited to be co-chairing UCP Suffolk’s 2016 Casino Night,” Maria Pfundstein said. “It will undoubtedly be an evening filled with excitement, entertainment, excellent cuisine, and exemplary company, all in support of a truly wonderful organization”.
