UCP Suffolk to Host 4th Annual Luncheon and Fashion Show

Models at our 2015 Fashion Show

Hauppauge, NY (May 10, 2016) – United Cerebral Palsy of Greater Suffolk Inc. (UCP Suffolk) will host its 2016 Luncheon and Fashion Show at Oheka Castle in Huntington, NY on Wednesday, June 15, 2016.

This year's event will be co-chaired by Elizabeth Diesa of Tabat Cohen Blum & Yovino and Board member Kim Smith, Esq.

“The Luncheon and Fashion Show is shaping up to be yet another successful event,” said Smith. “We are so fortunate to have a dedicated committee and Oheka Castle is a beautiful venue and breathtaking backdrop for a fashion show.”

The event will begin with a cocktail/networking reception, followed by the luncheon and fashion show. Male and female models comprised of UCP Suffolk program participants, family members and committee and board members will strut down the runway in the latest fall fashions of Ann Taylor Loft, Chico's, Flair and Mitchells.

Proceeds from the event will support UCP Suffolk programs and services such as education, residential and service coordination to help create a life without limits for individuals with disabilities.
